

Co-op Bank

One Bank One Month Four Awards

The Grenada Co-operative Bank was the proud recipient of four (4) awards in the month of November.

November

5th

On November 5th 2008, the title of ‘Best Corporate Citizen for Customer Service’ was conferred to the Bank by the Eastern Caribbean Central Bank (ECCB). This is in recognition of the mechanisms and work that are being out in place in the new thrust to be a superior service provider.

7th

Cognizant of the need to sustain programmes which have direct bearings on the educational development of our nation’s youth, the Bank makes annual contributions to aid students from low-income families at the secondary and tertiary levels. In this regard, the GRENCODA Student Assistant Programme presented to the Bank a Certificate of Appreciation for its “Consistent and Exemplary Financial Contributions to the Programme”.

22nd

The Grenada Chamber of Industry and Commerce (GCIC), the head advocate for the private sector, awarded the Bank for “encouraging staff development and training” Co-op Bank understands that the development of its human capital is vital to continued organizational growth.

29th

Co-op Bank was recognized by the University of the West Indies (UWI) for its significant contributions made to the development of UWI Grenada, with particular reference to the Julien Fedon Memorial Lecture Series. The Bank’s association with the name and figure of Julien Fedon and his legendary place in Grenadian folk history, speaks to its commitment to supporting and preserving the Grenadian Heritage.

its stalwart contributions by these prominent institutions and is humbled by their gestures of appreciation.