MAKE IT YOURS!

BELLE ISLE, ST. DAVID

You can own property in an upscale community!

Located in the coveted Belle Isle establishment, this lot of land measures 10,000 square feet, rectangular plot of land, characterized as gently sloping and well drained. With an excellent view of the ocean and nearby neighboring residential structures, this property is an ideal spot for your dream home. The lot can be accessed via a concrete road, which runs through the village before connecting to an asphalt paved section that runs for about two hundred meters. The property is equipped with water and electricity and recreational facilities can be accessed in relative close proximity.

Its' neighboring communities are agricultural based settlements, which are now transitioning into service oriented (tourism) and residential developments, making Belle Isle a potentially high income neighbourhood in the near future.

This location is ideal if you are:

Interested in additional real estate to increase you net worth

You are a young professional, looking to make the right start

Returning home from overseas to wish to construct your dream home
