Grenada Bankers Association elects new president.

St. George's, Monday, 21 MARCH 2016: The Grenada Bankers Association recently elected a new president. He is Mr. Roger Archer. The new President's most recent role before joining the Scotiabank Grenada team was that of Director Business Support for a team of 9 countries. In that role he was responsible for executing business strategy across the 9 countries. Roger is a former Banking Regulator and part-time lecturer at the University of the West Indies. He was educated at the University of Manchester, Manchester Business School and the University of London and holds a Bsc (Hons) in Financial Services, LLB (Hons) and an MBA in Finance (Merit). He brings to bear a wealth of experience and insights which he intends to use to ensure that the association maintains its mandate and continue playing an active role in the development of the financial services sector and economy of Grenada.

Mr. Keith Johnson, Managing Director of Republic Bank (Grenada) Ltd. has been elected Vice-President. Mr. Johnson began his banking career over 35 years ago in Guyana, and holds an Executive Master's Degree in Business Administration (MBA) from The University of the West Indies (Cave Hill), a BSc. in Accountancy from the University of Guyana, and is an Associate of the Institute of Canadian Bankers.

Ms. Gloria Williams, of Scotiabank was elected Secretary, and Richard W. Duncan of Co-op Bank, Treasurer.

Roger Archer, President:
Grenada Bankers Association

Keith Johnson, Vice President:
Grenada Bankers Association

As a body of corporate entities, the association seeks to represent the commercial banks in Grenada licensed in accordance with the provisions of the Banking Act. Its members comprise CIBC First Caribbean International Bank, Grenada Co-operative Bank Limited, The Bank of Nova Scotia, Republic Bank Grenada Ltd. and RBTT Bank Grenada Ltd.

Among its undertakings are to promote best practices in the banking sector, produce industry training, and assist in keeping members abreast of regulatory and legal changes that may affect the industry. Over the last year the association engaged in a number of activities such as public awareness campaigns to sensitise customers to guard against ATM fraud, and to inform and encourage the public to utilise the various delivery channels offered by the banking sector, such as ATM, telephone, mobile and internet banking.
